

Harel Chorev is the head of the Middle Eastern Network Analysis research group at the Moshe Dayan Center, Tel Aviv University.

He is a historian focusing on Middle Eastern networks and their analysis with tools combining empirical historical study and Network Theory. Chorev is also a specialist on Palestinian sociopolitical history and studies the impact of new media on the region and on lone-wolf terrorism.