

Iddo Moed is the Cybersecurity Coordinator of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

After joining the Israel Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1992 Mr. Moed was posted in several missions around the world including The Dominican Republic, The Hague, Singapore and Beijing (DCM). Positions in Israel included Assistant to the Director General, Water and Multilateral Affairs at the Middle East Division, Middle Eastern Economic Affairs, and Head of the Training Department. In June 2013, Mr. Moed was appointed as Cyber Security Coordinator at the Strategic Affairs Department, MFA. In this role Mr. Moed is responsible for coordination of policies regarding international cooperation in cyber security.