

Liron is a Senior Fellow at the Israel Tech Policy Institute. She leads the Institute's activities and research in Israel as well as its relationships with supporters and institutions abroad. She is also a Senior Associate at Herzog, Fox & Neeman Law Firm (HFN).

Liron has extensive experience in policy and research from her previous work at the legal department of the Israeli Antitrust Authority (IAA), where she acted as representative to several inter-ministerial committees and contributed to final reports and policy recommendations of major

Israeli market reforms.