

Maximilian Eder is a University Assistant at the Institute of Civil Law, Foreign Private Law and Private International Law at the University of Graz. After receiving his master's degree at the University of Graz with a thesis on legal political questions concerning joint property under Austrian Law, he worked as legal trainee at various Austrian courts, associate of a law firm and trainee of the Commercial section of the Austrian Embassy in Tel Aviv.

Currently, he is working on his PhD-thesis about civil law questions concerning Room Letting in the Sharing Economy on the example of Airbnb. Besides that, he teaches Austrian and European Law at diverse institutions including the University of Graz and the University of Sarajevo. In his research he covers a broad range of issues in the mentioned subjects, most recently on limitation of damage claims under Austrian law.