

May Har-Shai holds B.A. (Asian studies) and LL.B. degrees from Haifa University and currently completes her master degree in Law and Technology in Haifa University (in thesis stage – "The Internet of Things (IoT) technologies as a critical infrastructure", under the supervision of Dr. Eldar Haber). Har-Shai did her law-internship at the Cybercrime department in the Israeli State Attorney's Office. Har-Shai also serves as a research assistant at the Cyber Center in the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.