

Ms. Sharvit leads the policy division in the Israeli National Cyber Directorate. The division is responsible for the development of cyber related public policy, the directorate's government relations, and the directorate's budget.

Ms. Sharvit previously held the position of Policy and Administration Executive Director. In that capacity, she was responsible for the implementation of the strategic government resolution regarding the cyber in Israel, and for the directorate organization. This, after her position as the Head of the Establishment Administration of the Israeli Cyber Bureau in 2011.

Ms. Sharvit has vast experience of more than 20 years in the Israeli government, during which she worked at the national decision-making junction on core issues in Israel's economy and society, promoting cross-cutting work on cross-government ministries issues.

Ms. Sharvit served as advisor to the Director General of the Prime Minister's office, and before that as an assistant to the chair of the House Committee of the Israeli Parliament.

Ms. Sharvit has an MA (Honors Program) in Public Policy, and a BA in Political Science and Middle Eastern Studies, both from the Hebrew University.
